“WHO” has met HawkWatch International's Raptor Ambassadors?

Denise and Katy's Class did!
(And it was AWESOME!)

On April 6th, the OC's 2-3 grade class welcomed "Kotori," the Great Horned Owl (he thinks he's people) and "Yaki," the American Kestrel. The students handled eagle foot and skull replicas, and participated in a lively discussion about birds of prey. One student affectionately nicknamed the owl "Oliver" and the kestrel "Wing-Flapper".

HawkWatch was more exciting than snack or recess (really!) as the students remained in their seats to ask questions after the bell rang. Thank you to HawkWatch for an unforgettable raptor encounter! For more info, please check out BLM-Utah's Facebook site or Hawkwatch.org. Want raptors? We can make it happen! (Just promise to be as good as those 2-3rd graders!) ☺

SPECIAL THANKS to the OC 2-3 graders for your respect and consideration for our wildlife ambassadors.
You are GREAT kids
with smart questions and beautiful hearts!
