 - h. May 20th 7PM
4. Community Outreach. Chair opens for discussion. One of the responsibilities of the council. Designate SCC members for each grade level.
5. Community moral. Chair voices concern about enrollment decline and decreased funding. Wants to solicit ideas for increased morale and focusing on the positive. 487. 501- 505. Traditionally. Currently at 437. Principal says everything is fine this year but everything in flux for next year. Leanne: newsletter highlighting positives. Amanda – community council outreach. Parent: idea to take videos of children and show how well online learning is going. Amy Jameson: Discusses circulating letters about opening up schools. Focusing on how well SLC district is doing because of the focus on online structure. Principal says it is good to hear from parents' perspective. Macy Bell says negative is dominating the conversation. Thinks highlighting the positive is a great idea. Misty asks Principal if everyone is hooked in. Jen said when we introduce ourselves to the grades we can solicit positive stories and talk to neighbor who works at the Trib.
6. Online school report: Principal Culley. Close to 100% attendance. Some parents are "trying out" Bonneville and those are mostly the ones that aren't showing up every day. Amanda asks if we can compile those numbers and maybe publicize. Principal Culley says he will compile that statistic monthly. Parent says he stated his son who just stated at Bonneville and is having a wonderful experience. Mandy Paur says the feedback is so wonderful, especially with all the negative news coverage.
7. Program funding issues due to school closures. Trust Lands money this year going to 0.5 FTE. TSSA money is supporting 0.5 FTE. For science teacher we are using school discretionary funds. Misty looking for grants to support the school. The focus will really be funding for next year.
8. Form a subcommittee to compile the report to be posted by Oct 20th. Misty, Amanda, Jen all volunteered to compile the report. Motion to form. First: Jen. Principal Culley. Unanimous. We'll vote by email to approve the report before posting by Oct 20th.
